

GANG UNIT SUPERVISION

March 12–13, 2014 • Glen Ellyn, Illinois

Who Should Attend

The Gang Unit Supervision class is intended for officers who are currently or soon to be assigned as supervisors of gang units.

Although this curriculum is designed for personnel who operate against street gangs, security threat group supervisors will be accepted on a space-available basis.

Registration

There is no registration fee. This class is made possible through funding from the Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA), Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice. Class size is limited to 40 attendees on a first-come, first-served basis.

Register early to reserve your space. Register online at <http://s.iir.com/qus031214>.

Once your registration is received and accepted, a staff member from the Institute for Intergovernmental Research® (IIR) will e-mail a confirmation memo. For security reasons, only those individuals having a confirmed advance registration will be admitted to the class, and no registrations will be accepted at the door. Law enforcement credentials will be required at check-in. Class check-in will begin at 8:00 a.m. on March 12. The class schedule is 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on March 12 and 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on March 13.

Training Location

College of DuPage
Homeland Security Education Center
425 Fawell Boulevard
Glen Ellyn, IL 60137

A block of rooms has been reserved at a contract rate of $100, plus tax, at the Residence Inn Chicago Lombard, 2001 South Highland Avenue, Lombard, IL 60148, (630) 629-7800. Please reference BJA Training and reserve your room before Tuesday, February 25, 2014. Travel, lodging, and per diem expenses are the responsibility of the attendee.

Questions?

For questions regarding registration, call (800) 446-0912, extension 287. Accommodations will be made for individuals with disabilities as defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Contact IIR for further information.

Cohosted by

- College of DuPage, Suburban Law Enforcement Academy
- Midwest Gang Investigators Association
- Mid-States Organized Crime Information Center®
- United States Attorney's Office, Northern District of Illinois

Instructors

Instruction will be provided by experienced law enforcement practitioners.

Course Topics

Leadership—This lesson provides an overview of critical issues in gang unit leadership, to include the characteristics of effective gang unit leaders and common problems encountered by gang unit supervisors.

Gang Unit Organization—This lesson identifies and discusses factors that should be considered when organizing a gang unit. The information included is intended to be used in the development of a new gang unit, but it can also be used to evaluate or change an existing unit's mission or structure.

Gang Unit Policies and Procedures—This lesson emphasizes the importance of establishing a consistent set of policies and procedures for a gang unit.

Personnel Issues—This lesson provides an overview of personnel issues faced by gang unit supervisors, including selection, training, and management of gang unit personnel.

Performance Measurement—This lesson provides an overview of the purpose and use of performance measurement practices in a gang unit.

Logistics and Security—This lesson discusses the importance of the organizational placement and physical housing of law enforcement gang units.

Multijurisdictional Approach to Gangs—This lesson provides an overview of the common issues involved when developing and implementing a multijurisdictional approach to regional gang problems.

Intelligence Resources and Technology—This lesson provides an overview of gang intelligence and technological resources available for gang investigations.

Suppression Strategies and Tactics—This lesson presents a number of strategies and tactics that can be used to suppress gang activity, specifically from the perspective of a supervisor or commander.

A 2-Day Class

BJA
Bureau of Justice Assistance
U.S. Department of Justice

OJJDP
Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention

No Registration Fee