The Bureau of Justice Assistance’s (BJA) Justice and Mental Health Collaboration Training and Technical Assistance Program supports the Justice and Mental Health Collaboration Program (JMHC). This program is funded through the Mentally Ill Offender Treatment and Crime Reduction Act of 2004 (MIOTCRA) (Public Law 108-414), which was reauthorized in 2008 (Public Law 110-416). BJA is seeking a training and technical assistance (TTA) provider to deliver TTA to grantees to assist with their efforts to plan, implement, or expand adult or juvenile justice and mental health collaboration programs.

Deadline: Registration

Applicants must register with GMS prior to applying. The deadline to register is 8:00 p.m. Eastern Time on April 23, 2009.

Deadline: Applications

The due date for applying for funding under this announcement is 8:00 p.m. Eastern Time on April 23, 2009.

Eligibility

Applicants are limited to for-profit (commercial) organizations, nonprofit organizations, faith-based and community organizations, and institutions of higher learning with demonstrated expertise in assisting states and units of local government develop, implement, and expand adult or juvenile collaborative, cross-system criminal justice/mental health efforts. BJA encourages applications from organizations or agencies with knowledge and documented expertise in developing and implementing collaborative, cross-system programs for justice-involved individuals with mental illnesses or co-occurring mental health and substance use disorders, extensive knowledge of brokering and developing technical assistance, and willingness to collaborate with other BJA training and technical assistance providers. For-profit organizations must agree to waive any profit or fees for services. Applicants are strongly encouraged to partner with other organizations to submit joint applications for the required services and deliverables.

Faith-Based and Other Community Organizations:

Consistent with Executive Order 13279, dated December 12, 2002, and 28 C.F.R. Part 38, faith-based and other community organizations that statutorily qualify as eligible applicants under DOJ programs are invited and encouraged to apply for assistance awards to fund eligible grant activities. Faith-based and other community organizations will be considered for awards on the same basis as other eligible applicants and, if they receive assistance awards, will be treated on an equal basis with all other grantees in the administration of such awards. No eligible applicant or grantee will be discriminated for or against on the basis of its religious character or affiliation, religious name, or the religious composition of its board of directors or persons working in the organization.
Faith-based organizations receiving DOJ assistance awards retain their independence and do not lose or have to modify their religious identity (e.g., remove religious symbols) to receive assistance awards. DOJ grant funds, however, may not be used to fund any inherently religious activity, such as prayer or worship. Inherently religious activity is permissible, although it cannot occur during an activity funded with DOJ grant funds; rather, such religious activity must be separate in time or place from the DOJ-funded program. Further, participation in such activity by individuals receiving services must be voluntary. Programs funded by DOJ are not permitted to discriminate in the provision of services on the basis of a beneficiary’s religion.

If your organization is a faith-based organization that makes hiring decisions on the basis of religious belief, it may be entitled, under the Religious Freedom Restoration Act, 42 U.S.C. § 2000bb, to receive federal funds and yet maintain that hiring practice, even if the law creating the funding program contains a general ban on religious discrimination in employment. For the circumstances under which this may occur, and the certifications that may be required, please see the section titled, “Funding to Faith-Based Organizations” on the “Other Requirements for OJP Applications” web page at www.ojp.usdoj.gov/funding/other_requirements.htm.

Applicants are also encouraged to review the “Civil Rights Compliance” section on the “Other Requirements for OJP Applications” web page, which can be found at the web address shown above.

BJA Justice and Mental Health Collaboration Training and Technical Assistance Program-Specific Information

All awards are subject to the availability of appropriated funds and any modifications or additional requirements that may be imposed by law.

The primary purpose of the JMHCP is to increase public safety by facilitating collaboration among the criminal justice, juvenile justice, and mental health and substance abuse treatment systems to increase access to mental health and other treatment services for those individuals with mental illness or co-occurring mental health and substance use disorders. Jurisdictions (states, units of local governments, Indian tribes, and tribal organizations) are eligible to apply for planning, planning and implementation, or implementation and expansion funding through JMHCP. The primary goal of the Justice and Mental Health Collaboration Training and Technical Assistance Program is to provide a comprehensive array of training and technical assistance (TTA) services to assist grantees.

BJA is seeking a TTA provider with extensive expertise in: 1) providing proactive, comprehensive, user-friendly TTA services; 2) developing uniform protocols for the assessment and delivery of TTA, as well as tracking, evaluation, and follow-up; 3) using TTA strategies that include developing tools and resources for grantees, such as distance learning, peer-to-peer consultations, onsite technical assistance, and ongoing technical assistance by phone and e-mail; and 4) planning and hosting grantee meetings.

Requirements and Deliverables
The TTA provider will:

- Serve as the primary TTA provider for JMHCP grantees. Develop uniform TTA request and response protocols. Provide proactive, culturally competent, comprehensive, user-friendly TTA via teleconferencing, peer-to-peer consultations, onsite assistance, web-based assistance, and follow-up TTA as required by phone and e-mail.
• Develop and maintain a JMHCP TTA web site to include relevant resources and a mechanism for online technical assistance.

• Plan and implement a grantee orientation (TTA overview, grant management process and related tools, lessons learned, networking opportunity) for up to 75 participants to include two representatives from each grantee jurisdiction.

• Utilize the Planning and Implementation Guide with grantees to address governance, design, data collection and evaluation, and sustainability, and assess progress in achieving the goals of their grant. The TTA provider will assist grantees with this guide and use the data to inform how TTA will be delivered. An example of the guide can be found at: www.ojp.usdoj.gov/BJA/grant/JMHCPprogram.html.

• Report on technical assistance provided, including a summarization of the findings for the grantee and recommended next steps.

• Identify and maintain a list of TTA consultants whose expertise and experience best fit the needs of the grantees such as experts in law enforcement response programs; pre-trial services; mental health courts and diversion/alternative prosecution and sentencing programs; corrections and jails; community-based supervision; transitional and reentry services; and special populations such as system-involved juveniles and females.

• Plan for and host distance learning opportunities such as webinars and subject-specific conference calls for JMHCP grantees on topics such as grant management, strategic planning, collaboration, and sustainability.

• Develop and maintain a listserv of JMHCP grantees to distribute updates and other information and to facilitate ongoing communication.

• Assist grantees in collecting and reporting on JMHCP performance measures and identify trends from the performance measure data submissions.

• Support national and federal partners on related projects and maintain a presence at national or state training events related to criminal justice and mental health programs.

Review Process

OJP is committed to ensuring a standardized process for awarding grants. The Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA) reviews the application to make sure that the information presented is reasonable, understandable, measurable, and achievable, as well as consistent with program or legislative requirements as stated in the solicitation.

Peer reviewers will be reviewing the applications submitted under this solicitation as well. BJA may use either internal peer reviewers, external peer reviewers, or a combination of both to review the applications under this solicitation. An external peer reviewer is an expert in the field of the subject matter of a given solicitation who is NOT a current U.S. Department of Justice employee. An internal reviewer is an expert in the field of the subject matter of a given solicitation who is a current U.S. Department of Justice employee. Applications will be screened initially to determine whether the applicant meets all eligibility requirements. Only applications submitted by eligible applicants that meet all other requirements (such as timeliness, proper format, and responsiveness to the scope of the solicitation) will be evaluated, scored, and rated by a peer review panel. Peer reviewers' ratings and any resulting recommendations are advisory only. In addition to peer review ratings, considerations may include, but are not limited to, underserved populations, strategic priorities, past performance, and available funding.

After the peer review is finalized, the Office of the Chief Financial Officer (OCFO), in consultation with BJA, conducts a financial review of all potential discretionary awards and cooperative agreements to evaluate the fiscal integrity and financial capability of applicants; examines proposed costs to determine if the budget and budget narrative accurately explain project costs; and determines whether costs are reasonable, necessary, and allowable under applicable federal cost principles and agency regulations. OCFO also reviews the award document and verifies the OJP Vendor Number.

Absent explicit statutory authorization or written delegation of authority to the contrary, all final grant award decisions will be made by the Assistant Attorney General, who may also give consideration to factors including, but not limited to, underserved populations, strategic priorities, past performance, and available funding when making awards.
